

Please do not allow cell phone use on commercial aircraft. Not only are people rude and loud on their phones in public. But in an emergency I want to be able to hear the flight attendants and pilots instructions instead of the person next to me screaming on their cell phone. Due to the great safety record of US airlines this country and the people in it have become to complacent about safety.